

MANY ESTATES TO SELL REAL ESTATE

Twenty-five Voluntary Offerings on Auction Rooms Schedule.

OUTDOOR SALES TO START ON SATURDAY

Lots at Jamaica-Hillcrest Will Be Disposed Of and Roslyn Estates Plots.

Speculators and investors in real estate will have a wide and varied offering of parcels to choose from at offerings at auction in New York this week. Some twenty-five parcels will be disposed of at voluntary sale. These are located in Manhattan, The Bronx, Brooklyn, and Westchester.

On Saturday next at 2 p.m. will sell at auction for the trustees of the Jamaica-Hillcrest Company, an liquidation about 200 lots in Jamaica-Hillcrest, 30th Ward, Borough of Queens. The sale will continue on Sunday, the day before it ends. The property is located in one of the chief sections of Queens, with all improvements.

Joseph F. Day will also conduct an auction sale on Saturday, when he will offer twenty-three plots on the Roslyn Estates. The sale will be held on the premises, beginning at 2 p.m.

Roger L. Kennedy will offer some one property in the Vesey Street section on Wednesday. Among these is an entire block of houses on Vesey Street, from Fordham Road to West Street, to say the least. Thomas Patterson, who has been making a series of voluntary offerings of buildings at the northwest corner of Bleeker and Mercer streets, two four story dwellings in Eighth Street, near Riverside Drive, a large vacant plot in Bainbridge Avenue for the estate of John H. Lederberg, a dwelling in Second Avenue, north of Eighteenth Street, and a tract of 400 lots at East White Plains.

On Thursday in the Vesey Street room, Mr. Day will hold another of his special sales, and will present a second class of properties, also for the accounts of estates, including those of Harry McGeary, John A. Casey, Edward P. Casey, Francis Higgins and Benjamin G. W. Leichterberg. These properties comprise dairies in The Bronx, a loft building in Duane Street, near Broadway, a few blocks from Chambers Street, west of Washington Street, dwelling in Lincoln Woods, West 126th Street, and East Sixty-second Street, two dwelling houses in Lawndale Street, Brooklyn; two large plots for Rockaway, a big vacant plot at the southeast corner of Riverside Drive and 150th Street, and a flathouse in West 126th Street and another in West 130th Street.

Chef among the forced sales is that of the new business building at 150 and 152 West 126th Street, a plot 100 feet west of Fifth Avenue, in a plot 50x100 feet, which there is due $187,771. It will be disposed of at the hands of Herbert A. Sherman today.
